

It is in the plans to be the bridging institution between conventional music education to higher music institutions offering degrees in music. The Play By Ear™ Method is to be the foremost music course system in this region. That the music industries will look towards us as a reservoir to provide calibered music talents (production and performance).

The government will look to us as the foremost music training facility in the region and our views are the ones that will shape the Malaysian education in music.